

MUSKEGON INVENTORS NETWORK
CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

This Agreement is effective on the date written below between the undersigned presenter or presenters ("Presenter") and the undersigned reviewing individuals (individually "Reviewing Party" or collectively "Reviewing Parties") with reference to the following facts:

Presenter has requested Muskegon Inventors Network to provide individuals for a confidential review of an idea for a possible product that Presenter has developed and has permission to share Information regarding such invention with the Reviewing Parties ("Idea Review"). The Reviewing Parties agree to keep Information presented in the Idea Review confidential according to the terms of this Agreement.

Therefore, the parties agree as follows:

Information. For purposes of this Agreement, information is defined as any information which now exists or is created after the date of this Agreement which involves the Presenter's specific "Invention" as described below or any other ideas or documents relating to such Invention presented to Reviewing Party in the course of the requested Idea Review on the date this Agreement is signed by the Presenter and the Reviewing Parties. In addition, information includes, but is not limited to, the following types of knowledge or similar data (whether or not reduced to writing): plans and materials, whether copyrightable or not, purchasing information, price lists, pricing policies, quoting procedures, financial information, or other information relating to the manner in which the Presenter does business; discoveries, inventions, concepts, processes, and ideas, whether patentable or not, including, but without limitation, the nature and results of research and development activities, techniques, "know-how," and related documents and manuals; and / or any other materials or knowledge related to the Invention or activities of the Presenter that are not generally known to others engaged in a similar activity ("Information"). The terms of this Agreement shall not apply to Information which is generally available to the public, published or generally made public through no fault of a Reviewing Party, Information that a Reviewing Party can prove was in Reviewing Party's possession prior to the disclosure by the Presenter or was independently developed by Reviewing Party, or Information that was disclosed to Reviewing Party without the benefit of Information provided by the Presenter by a third party who was authorized to disclose such Information.

Confidentiality; Use of Information. Reviewing Party acknowledges that the Information is presented to the Reviewing Party under the condition that Reviewing Party shall at all times hold all Information in the strictest confidence. Reviewing Party shall not use for his or her benefit or the benefit of any third party and Information and shall not make, download, photocopy, or otherwise reproduce or disclose any documents or copies of documents containing Information or any portion thereof.

Remedy. The parties agree that the Presenter shall be entitled, in addition to any other remedies available to him or her, either at law or in equity, to injunctive relief to enforce the terms of this Agreement.

Invention Description: _____ ("Invention")

Presenter:

Reviewing Party:

Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Date: _____

Print Name: _____ Date: _____